

3rd April 2023 marked as the seventh day of an 8-day long workshop on navigating legal risks in business.

The aim of this workshop was to make students acquainted to the different types of risk factors a business-man deals with while running their business and what are the techniques through which they can minimize these risks.

The speaker for the workshop was Dr. Akansha Sharma who explained Sales of goods act 1930. In workshop she discussed various topics and kept the whole session very interactive.

All of the students learned something which would help in their career, the feedback of the students was very positive and are looking forward to upcoming sessions.