

29th march marked as the fifth day of 8 days long workshop which was held in BBA department on the topic of sales of goods act.

The speaker of this workshop was Dr. Akanksha Sharma who gave brief introduction about sales of goods act, during introduction they talked about Sales of Goods Act is a crucial piece of legislation that regulates the sale of goods in the United Kingdom. The act was enacted in 1979, and it has since undergone several amendments. It applies to all contracts for the sale of goods, whether it is a business-to-business or business-to-consumer transaction. The purpose of this report is to provide an overview of the Sales of Goods Act, its key provisions, and its impact on businesses.

During workshop the key provision was 1) Transfer of property, 2) Sale and agreement to sell, 3) Condition and warranty, 4) Implied terms. The act also provides workshops and businesses with a degree of protection. It allows them to limit their liability in certain circumstances, such as where the defect was caused by the consumer's misuse of the goods.

All the students learned something which would help in their carrier, the feedback of the students was very positive and are looking forward to upcoming sessions.
