

Navigating Legal Risks in Business Workshop

Day – 6 Report

1st April 2023 noted as the sixth day of an 8-day long workshop on navigating legal risks in business.

The aim of this workshop was to make students acquainted to the different types of risk factors a business-man deals with while running their business and what are the techniques through which they can minimize these risks.

Dr. Akansha Sharma gave a brief introduction on the topic and talked about every theme in a summarised manner . The speaker reflected her years of experience through her meticulous and lucid teaching and kept the whole session very synergistic which was followed by an interactive questions and discussion session whilst learning about something that would help in their career.

The feedback of the students was very positive and likewise were enthusiastically looking forward for the upcoming sessions.