The lecture was conducted by the faculty of commerce. The lecture was started by a welcome speech given by Kajol Samtani. CS Avadhesh Parashar Sir was invited as a Chief Guest to have an interactive session with the students of Commerce Department.

After welcoming the chief guest, CS Avadhesh Parashar Sir reflected on his profound knowledge about commerce as a stream. Sir also discussed the future options available to commerce student. Sir interacted with the students and provided them a brief knowledge about COMPANY SECRETARY and his role. Sir also discussed how a professional like CA CS has a stable life as compared to any sole proprietor or entrepreneur. An interactive discourse ignited the inquisitiveness among students. More than 100 students of Commerce Stream participated in the lecture.

The informative lecture ended on a positive note with an atmosphere of learning and growing together, and was concluded with a vote of thanks proposed by Sameera Hasan.
