RTI Declaration

Right to Information Act-2005 mandates timely response to citizen requests for government information. This Act came into force from 15 June, 2005, empowers the citizens to promote transparency and accountability in the working of the Government. A citizen has the right to seek such information from a public authority which is held by the public authority or which is held under its control. All Universities and Colleges established by law made by Parliament or by State Legislature or by notification by the appropriate Government or owned, controlled or substantially financed directly or indirectly by funds provided by the Government shall come within the meaning of a Public Authority under this Act. Simply put, “Response to Intervention (RTI)” is a framework for implementing proactive data-driven decision making.

Full text of the Act is available on the website www.righttoinformation.gov.in
